

BELFAST HISTORICAL SOCIETY AND MUSEUM
WINTER 2012 PRESS RELEASE

The Belfast Historical Society and Museum is excited to announce that “Window on History,” the televised version of The Belfast Historical Society’s monthly free programs, was so well received during its first season that it’s been expanded from seven to ten months for Season II.

Starting in January, 2012, tune in to BCTV-2 to enjoy “Winter Season” broadcasts. These programs are “studio produced” and can be enjoyed without leaving your home.

As of April, venture over to the Belfast Free Library for the beginning of seven months of “Live at the Library” programs. As in the past, the programs are free to the public and held in the Abbott Room at 7 p.m. from April through October.

If you can’t join us at the Library, remember that you can always tune in to BC-TV2 to enjoy our programs. “Window on History” can be seen Tuesdays at 7 p.m., Thursdays at 9:30 a.m., and Saturdays at 4:30 p.m. Or, watch the program on the Belfast Historical Society’s website, belfastmuseum.org, or borrow a DVD of the programs from the Belfast Free Library.

Season II of “Window on History” is made possible by the generous support of Crabiel-Riposta Funeral Home, Dutch Chevrolet-Buick, Front Street Shipyard, Green Tree Coffee and Tea, Interiors by Janis Stone, Maine Country and Coast Real Estate, MTA Accounting, Perry’s Furniture, and Tall Pines Healthcare Community. Please let our Sponsors know how much you appreciate their support by supporting them!
